Well Year Three! This would have been our last week together. Thank you so much for your effort during lockdown and sending your work, it has really kept me going. Good luck in year four, you have been a fantastic class; I am sure you will all keep it up! Enjoy the summer and see you in September.

Reading	No comprehension this week – enjoy reading your own books, read leaflets, posters or anything that interests you.
Writing	Plan a party! Finally, lockdown is easing, it is the end of year three and the summer holidays are about to begin. If we could have a party to celebrate, what food and other things would you want? My list would include pizza, music, a selfie station, cake and I would host it in our school yard. What would you want? You could write a list or you could draw a plan of what you want and where at your party.
Wider Curriculum	When you return in September, what would you tell your new teacher? Can you make a little booklet or an information sheet with the heading 'All About Me'. Tell your teacher three facts about yourself e.g. what your favourite food is, any hobbies, if you have any siblings etc.
