Hi Reception.

We are missing you at school already as we were so excited to continue our Stick Man adventures this week.

Please make sure you take care of yourself and your family and we will see you soon.

Please complete the activities below and send me, Mrs Boyes, an email on RDTRBDormanstown@tved.org.uk so that I can see what you are doing and send you a message back!

Subject	Learning Challenge
	Reception
Maths	Number hunt – can you find all the numbers to 10 in order around your house? You can't look at a clock face, that is cheating! They have to be in different places. Can you write all the numbers to 10 in order and the right way round! Copy first, then practise writing from memory.
Reading	Now that we have learnt all our letter sounds, can you keep practising saying and reading them correctly. Watch the video below every day. Please search YouTube RW! Parent video: How to say the sounds - YouTube Can you sound out and read these words? sat mad dad pin red This week, please practise reading these tricky red words The I he
Writing	Can you write a sentence about what Stick Man was used for at the beginning of the story. Can you remember what the dog did, the children on the bridge, the swan and dad on the beach? A pooh stick. He was a stick for the dog.
Wider Curriculum	 This is our Stick Man Family. But where has Stick Baby gone now? Can you look in your garden and see if you can see him? If you find him can you tell us where he is and draw a picture of where you found him? Take a photo and email it to the address above.
